Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Jubilee Greeting at Spithead to the Men of Greater Britain You and I are old enough to remember the time when, in the world of letters at least, patriotism was not so fashionable as it is now - when, indeed, love of England suggested Philistinism rather than sweetness and light. Other people, such as Frenchmen, Italians, Irishmen, Hungarians, Poles, might give voice to a passionate love of the land of their birth, but not Englishmen. It was very curious, as I thought then, and at I think now. And at that period love of the Colonies was, if possible, even more out of fashion than was love of England; and this temper was not confined to the cultured class.
