Excerpt: .committees on publication, programme, etc., were appointed by the chair, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. J. W. Mailliard and H. B. Kmding for San Francisco County, and H. R. Taylor and D. A. Cohen for Alameda County, were appointed to confer with authors of bills now before the Legislature for the better Protection of Game and Song Birds and if possible, to prevent the indiscriminate robbing of birds nests. Interesting papers were read by members. The next meeting will be held February 6, in Alameda. Ducks have been shot in fair numbers by pleasure seekers, while commission men say that consignments from market hunters have been very light lately. During the two weeks of any clear weather since Christmas good sport has been found among the Quail, while Jacksnipe are yet scattered over considerable territory where late rains have made good boring grounds. A Twilight Ramble Among the Birds. OW pleasant it is, and how refreshH ing, when the heat of a July day is tempered. by the Western sun, to wander forth into the cool, delicious air, that air which gives renewed life to man, bird and beast, and gently revives the drooping foliage and tender plants with its dewy breath, preparing them to withstand the onslaught of the morrow. Strolling carelessly along a shady promenade of Alameda s suburbs, lined with gigantic, gnarled and lichen-covered oaks, a band of California Partridges taking a dust bath in the middle of the road...
