Coloring is an activity which has long been associated with children and it has been taken for granted that, as we reach maturity, we put away our crayons and turn to more adult pursuits. In recent years however we have increasingly witnessed this wisdom being overturned and coloring for adults has become a widespread and growing hobby. But why has coloring for adults become so popular? There are many explanations for the rapid growth in adult coloring, but here are just a few. Coloring Reduces Stress And Anxiety Psychiatrists have long recognized the fact that coloring relaxes the fear center of the brain and permits your mind to get some rest. Indeed the founder of analytical psychology, Carl Jung, is known to have given his patients mandalas to color more than one hundred years ago. In today's hectic world the stress reducing properties...
