Conventional digital metrics simplyaren t up to the task. Now, Gary Angel shows how to reinvent digital measurement so it delivers allyou need to create richer, more compelling digital experiences. For more than a decade, Angel has helped leading global enterprises succeed at digital. This bookreflects all he s learned. You ll find valuable guidance on understanding visitor intent,creatingcustomer taxonomies,digital segmentation,integrating VoC research,and using behavioralanalysis and controlled experiments to investigate what drives customer choice. Angel will help you measure the value of every digital interaction more accurately, identify specificdigital behaviors that predict success, and create a comprehensive measurement paradigm thatintegrates all your digital spaces. With flawed tools and siloed analytics, you re blind to what s really happening online. But you don t have to be. Gary Angel will help you make the invisible visible.actionable.profitable. Most common digital metrics are virtually useless. They measure the wrong things in the wrong ways. They don t link digital activity to customer attitudes and behaviors. They don t work well with today s powerful analytics tools. Above all, they don t help you improve your performance. This book gives you a better way. Gary Angel, leader of Ernst Young s pioneering Digital Analytics practice, presents...
