Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Darleen Williams (illustrator). 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In this story I have embellished things to make my topic interesting and funny, but the conclusion of the book is my reality. We must live life as if there is no turning back, and our conscience should be our guide because God is guiding us at all times. The key to this story is Choices and Consequences. With every choice in life there are consequences Good and Bad. Therefore, the morale of this story is to always try to make good choices then you won t have bad or unwelcomed consequences. But, in life this is hard to do. In other words it s easier said than done. However, in the story you will see that is incorrect, because I will show you how if given the chance to change situations in your life nothing can ever be the right choice. In reality, we cannot undo situations in our life by rubbing a magic rock or just wishing it away. When we think about decisions our conscience sometimes tells us to do or not to do things and ultimately we have the final say so. But what if life was like our conscience; meaning, if we make a decision to do something, or act on something and we didn t like the outcome of our first choice then we could simply say I ll try this situation differently, sounds too good to be true, well it isn t. It is a known fact that when we make choices in life it is just that a CHOICE. No, we can t change the outcome to a particular situation but we can change it the second,...
