He then ordered some sheep to be killed and given to the robber in place of the seals, that he might not return empty. A short time after, the saint saw in spirit that the death of the robber was at hand, and he ordered Baithen, then steward in Tiree, to send a fat sheep and six pecks of corn as a last gift. Baithen sent them at once, but found that the robber had died suddenly the same day, and the presents were used at his burial. Divine service was held morning and evening, in which the members were...
