The Mayor sent east, west, north, and south To offer the Piper by word of mouth, Wherever it was man s lot to find him, Silver and gold to his heart s content, If he d only return the way he went, And bring the children behind him. But when they saw t was a lost endeavor, And Piper and dancers were gone for ever, They made a decree that lawyers never Should think their records dated duly, If, after the day of the month and year These words did not as well appear, And so long after what happened here On the twenty-second of July, Thirteen hundred and seventy-six: And the better in memory to fix The place of the children s last retreat, They called it, the Pied Piper s Street--Where any one playing on pipe or tabor, Was sure for the future to lose his labor. Nor suffered they hostelry or tavern To shock with mirth a street so solemn; But opposite the place...
