

Collections for the Journey of Life (Paperback)

By Jeff Scalf

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . He was awakened by the strong, foul smell of rotting food mixed with sour mud. His face grimaced from the intense hunger pains, because he hadn't eaten in days. As he got up from the mud that he had slept in, a thought raced through his mind, my father's servants live like kings compared to this. Too many times, we can gloss over the Scriptures and fail to place ourselves there with the characters. Place yourself in Prodigal son's shoes. What was it like to wake up in a pigpen? What emotions would he have felt? What sensations would he have experienced? Jeff Scalf, in Collections For the Journey of Life, accomplishes the grace of conciseness while challenging the hearts of all believers as well as pastors, says Dr Garry L. Brackett, Senior Pastor, Callaway Assembly of God. This series of devotionals invites readers to explore scripture through character studies, allowing them to experience the emotions and dilemmas of a variety of individuals ranging from the prodigal to Samson. Pastor Scalf turns...
