Masnavi, the best known work of Rumi, Persian poet and Sufi master comprises 25685 verses of mystical poetry. Stories include domestic and social events discussed in esoteric language in order to teach the path for purification and attaining divine love. The book Rumi Masnavi Stories written by Ataollah Farhang Ghahremani is a collection of all the stories within Masnavi, presented in a very easy-to-read text in Persian (Farsi) language. Often in Masnavi, stories are scattered within chapters or interrupted by other fables or tales. In this book, when a story is told it comprises all parts and incorporates the spiritual and moral teachings Rumi points out throughout the verses.
