However, I will do my best. I have referred for dates, etc., to articles written by Mrs. Martha J.Lamb, Mr. George Parsons Lathrop, and others. The first English settlement in the present limits of the State of New York was made by Lion Gardiner, by the purchase from the Indians, of an island now known as Gardiner s Island. It was nine miles long by one to one and a half wide, and contained 3500 acres. This purchase was duly confirmed by the agent of Lord Sterling, March 10, 1639. Gardiner s Island was not only a manor, but was, also, a lordship, for the terms of Governor Dongan s Grant, in 1686, were To erect and constitute the said island one lordship and manor, to all intents and purposes. The said island shall henceforth be called the Lordship and Manor of Gardiner s Island. This island has been longer in the possession of one family than any other individual estate on this continent, having had twelve proprietors in direct line, to the present owner....
