The other specific restrictions intended to limit the total number coming to the final contests at the University, remain. The University would gladly welcome more high school students to those annual contests, but it is physically impossible to make adequate provision for their entertainment. The committee hopes that school authorities will appreciate this and give their hearty cooperation in the working out of satisfactory rules and regulations. NEWS AND PERSONALS The Record acknowledges with thanks a note of encouragement and appreciation from Dr. J. E. Boyle, now Professor of Agricultural Economics in Cornell University and formerly Professor of Economics here at the University of North Dakota. of Kauai, Territory of Hawaii.
