Yet truly thou art cursed in having such a jaw, The champ of which doth try my patience sore. And soon thou hast to scud from angry scratch and claw, And often thou must bite afresh ere surfeited thy maw! Hadst thou instead of escharotic teeth Been furnished with a blood-extracting bill, Which once insinuated skin beneath, The worst were past; I d feel no thrill To make me shiver as though an agueichill Did all my joints and nerves undo, Till I sit chattering like a fanning mill, Perhaps when sitting in the still church pew, Where I should think of heaven instead of things like you. I grant there s naught on earth, nor in the sea, Nor in the windy waste around our rolling sphere, That can at all compare with thy agility When thou...
