By Paula Laureen Henderson

PLH Wisdom Media, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .What does it take to be a survivor in the world today? Or in the future? Are world issues becoming so large and common that no one hears them anymore? How can we, as a nation, evolve from victim mentality to survivor ? Paula Laureen Henderson, author/novelist and political activist, captivates readers with her unique ability to use her personal cancer experience as an analogy for achieving a healthy, proactive nation; for encouraging a mentality movement from victim to survivor. Her works focus on bringing reality into the minds of her readers. Beginning with Chapter 1 and her comparison of three generations: baby boomers, generation X, and the millennial; she leads the reader through strong philosophies that peaks awareness of global and national dispute. Henderson questions the agenda of both national and global political leaders and examines the mindset of the future generation she identifies as the millennial, the daycare generation that holds tightly onto the wait and see what happens mentality. She holds the reader s hand as page by page, case study by case...
