Excerpt: . telegraphic despatch was then prepared for transmission to the Porte, and the assembly broke up. As the Cazee and Mufty walked home together the former said, -- My brother, what thinkest thou of the evidence of these men? Mufty.-- It seemed to me shamefully trumped up. I am scandalized at respectable, religious-looking persons like these giving before God such testimony in a case of life and death. Have they no fear of the Lord before their eyes? And so they conversed as they went along. The Cazee on the way called to mind the story of a sanctimonious witness discovered and discarded by a few close questionings of the Caliph Omar;-- Just so, he said, with these creatures who profess much piety, but practise it not, as it is said, They think to deceive God, but deceive only their own souls (Sura ii....
