Doxey, Fort Worth, Texas, of the Central States mission, November 15: The missionaries here rejoice in the many glorious privileges and blessings witnessed in their travels to further the Lords work. We have a testimony that the Lord is blessing his children in these days as in days of old. This has been realized here of late during the present prevalence of a fever spreading through the country. The child of a family afflicted with this fever was given up to die by two attending physicians. That night the elders were called and administered to the child and prayed for it, that it might be restored to health. The next morning, to the surprise of the physicians and neighbors, the boy was feeling well and on the rapid road to recovery. This is but one instance of many. Many hearts have been softened, and a number of people have been received into the Church by baptism. Others have expressed themselves as desiring to follow in the near future. Missionaries, left to right, top...
